

PROTESTERS!

You have every right to:

- Peacefully assemble to exercise your First Amendment right to protest
- Protest in traditional "public forums" such as streets, sidewalks, and parks so long as you aren't blocking traffic
- Protest without a permit in response to recent events
- Distribute leaflets and other literature on public sidewalks without a permit
- Photograph or videotape police

ACLU Learn more: aclu.org/kyr-protest

PROTESTERS!

You have every right to:

- Peacefully assemble to exercise your First Amendment right to protest
- Protest in traditional "public forums" such as streets, sidewalks, and parks so long as you aren't blocking traffic
- Protest without a permit in response to recent events
- Distribute leaflets and other literature on public sidewalks without a permit
- Photograph or videotape police

ACLU Learn more: aclu.org/kyr-protest

PROTESTERS!

You have every right to:

- Peacefully assemble to exercise your First Amendment right to protest
- Protest in traditional "public forums" such as streets, sidewalks, and parks so long as you aren't blocking traffic
- Protest without a permit in response to recent events
- Distribute leaflets and other literature on public sidewalks without a permit
- Photograph or videotape police

ACLU Learn more: aclu.org/kyr-protest

PROTESTERS!

You have every right to:

- Peacefully assemble to exercise your First Amendment right to protest
- Protest in traditional "public forums" such as streets, sidewalks, and parks so long as you aren't blocking traffic
- Protest without a permit in response to recent events
- Distribute leaflets and other literature on public sidewalks without a permit
- Photograph or videotape police

ACLU Learn more: aclu.org/kyr-protest